Citroën C3 Aircross offers a wide choice of economical and efficient engines, from the latest PureTech petrol designs to refined, low-emissions BlueHDi.
The latest PureTech petrol engines available on the C3 Aircross provide a responsive and flexible drive whilst specialising in reducing fuel consumption and CO₂ emissions further than ever before.

The super-efficient BlueHDi diesel range of engines are also some of the segment leaders with technology that continuously minimises polluting engine emissions and complies with the latest European standards. At the heart of this exceptional performance is an innovative exhaust system that filters out both particulate pollution and nitrogen oxide (NOx).

The EAT6 automatic gearbox, coupled to a Stop & Start system is available from October, with the PureTech 110 which further enhances the performance and driving experience, whilst optimising the gear changes and ratio to refine the consumption and CO₂ emissions.
